INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of The Vitanova Foundation:

Qualified Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Vitanova Foundation which comprise the statement of financial position as at March 31, 2023 and the statements of operations and changes in net assets and cash flows for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

In our opinion, except for the possible effect of the matter described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Vitanova Foundation, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not for profit organizations (ASNFPO).

Basis for Qualified Opinion

In common with many non-for-profit organizations, the Organization derives revenues from the general public in the form of donations and fundraising functions, the completeness of which is not susceptible to satisfactory audit verification. Accordingly, our verification of revenues was limited to the amounts recorded in the records of the Organization. Therefore, we were not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary to fundraising revenues, operating surplus and cash flows from operations for the years ended March 31, 2023 and 2022, current assets as at March 31, 2023 and March 31, 2022, and net assets as at April 1 and March 31 for both the 2023 and 2022 years. Our audit opinion on the financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2023 was modified accordingly because of the possible effects of this limitation in scope.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Organization in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified audit opinion.

Key Audit Matters

We have determined that there are no key audit matters to report.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not for profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Organization or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Organization's financial reporting process.

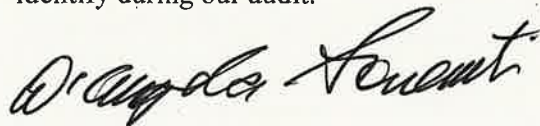

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting, and based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Organization to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

1. Purpose, objects and operations, continued

- b) To accept donation gifts, legacies and bequests in furtherance of the corporation's objects;
- c) The corporation shall be carried on without the purpose of gain for its members and any profits or other accretions to the corporation shall be used in promoting its objects;
- d) The corporation shall be subject to the Charities Accounting Act and the Charitable Gifts Act;
- e) The directors shall serve as such without remuneration, and no director shall directly or indirectly receive any profit from their position as such; provided that directors may be paid reasonable expenses incurred by them in the performance of their duties;
- f) The borrowing power of the corporation pursuant to any by-law passed and confirmed in accordance with section 59 of the Corporations Act shall be limited to borrowing money for current operating expenses, provided that the borrowing power of the corporation shall not be so limited if it borrows on the security of real or personal property.

2. Significant accounting policies

Basis of presentation

These financial statements present, in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not for profit organizations, the assets, liabilities, revenue, expenses and cash flows of the Vitanova Foundation.

Cash and cash equivalents

The Foundation considers deposits in bank, certificates of deposit and other short-term investments with original maturities of 90 days or less at the date of acquisition as cash and cash equivalents.

Investments

Investments are classified and stated at amortized cost. Investment purchases and sales transactions are accounted for on the settlement date.

THE VITANOVA FOUNDATION

Notes to Financial Statements

Financial instruments other than investments

The following policies and assumptions were used to determine the fair value of each class of financial assets and financial liabilities. Cash and cash equivalents, HST and other receivables, accounts payable, accrued liabilities and employee tax deductions payable are financial assets and liabilities measured at their carrying amount since it is comparable to their fair value due to the short term maturity of these financial instruments.

Contributions and revenue recognition

Government grants are recognized as revenue when received or receivable if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured. Donations and fundraising activities, other revenue - Ontario Works are recorded when received.

The Foundation follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions. Operating grants received prior to the year in which they apply are recorded as deferred contributions. Income from fund raising activity is recognized when the event occurs. Income from sponsorships and interest is recorded when received. Fees from performances, programs and workshops that the Foundation provides are recorded when earned.

Capital assets

Capital assets are recorded at cost and amortization is based on the estimated useful life of assets. Amortization of furniture and fixtures is provided on the declining balance at an annual rate of 20 %. Computer and vehicle and tractor is provided on the declining balance at an annual rate of 45%, 30% and 30%, respectively. Leasehold improvements are amortized on a straight-line basis over 10 years.

Impairment of capital assets

An asset is tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that its carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognized when the carrying amount of the asset exceeds the sum of undiscounted cash flows resulting from its use and eventual disposition. Impairment loss is measured as the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds its fair value.

Government grants

Government grants are recorded as revenue. Specific grants and the related expenses are deferred until completion of the project, when all conditions have been satisfied and grants declared earned.

Income taxes

The Foundation is a registered charity under the provisions of the Income Tax Act and is therefore not liable for either federal or provincial income taxes.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian accounting standards for not for profit organizations requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the current period. Estimates are required in determining future cash flows when assessing assets for impairment, the useful lives of capital assets for amortization purposes, the allowance for uncollectible accounts receivable and contingencies. These estimates are reviewed periodically and adjustments are made to income as appropriate in the year they become known.

Donated services

Some of the work of the Foundation is dependent on voluntary services offered by volunteers. Since these services are not normally purchased by the Foundation and because of the difficulty of determining their fair value, donated services of this kind are not recognized in these financial statements.

3. Related party transactions

The related entities have common management. The Vitanova Shelter Corporation charges rent to the Vitanova Foundation (2023-$ 120,000; 2022-$ 120,000). The rent is in the normal course of business and is measured at the exchange amount, which is the amount of consideration established and agreed to by the related entities.

4. Cash and cash equivalents

The fair value of cash and cash equivalents in 2023 was $ 669,724 (2022 - $ 1,128,476). The fair value of unrestricted cash and cash equivalents in 2023 was $ 280,469 (2022 - $ 80,961) available for use towards the day-to-day operations of the Foundation. The fair value of restricted cash in fiscal year 2023 is $ 362,249 (2022 - $ 1,039,017) to be used towards capital projects and $ 27,006 (2022 - $ 8,498) to be used towards scholarships awarded by the Foundation.

5. Accounts receivable

Accounts receivable in 2023 is comprised of $ 79,628 (2022 - $ 69,971) to be received from the Federal government as a rebate provided to registered charities in Canada for relief on HST paid on expenses incurred to run the Foundation operations and $ 480,000 (2022 - $ 49,623) to be received in government capital funding.

Year Ended March 31, 2023

6. Investment, chapel

Investment, chapel represents an amount held by the Royal Bank as security for unforeseen construction costs after the completion of the Chapel. The amount of funds held of $ 77,739 (2022 - $ 76,264) was part of the Vitanova contractual obligation with the City of Vaughan for the construction of the Chapel. If no further costs are later incurred by the Foundation then the held funds will be returned to the operations of Vitanova. If further project costs on the Chapel are incurred by Vitanova after the completion of the Chapel then these costs will be expensed or capitalized in the year of the Chapel's completion. These funds were invested by Vitanova in a 180 day RBC guaranteed income certificate maturing April 2, 2023 at an annual rate of return of 3.8 %.

7. Investment

The amortized cost of the investment is $ 114,387 (2022 - $ 112,717). The funds are held in a 1 year RBC guaranteed income certificate maturing May 4, 2023 at an annual rate of return of 1.6 %. The investment is held for the emergency needs of Vitanova operations and for any unforeseen capital expenditures of the Foundation. This investment has an option to reinvest and will be reinvested upon maturity for long term use.

8. Funds, held in trust, Women's Treatment Centre

The amortized cost of the first fund held in trust for the Women's Treatment Centre is $ 197,350 (2022 - $144,984). The funds are held in a 1 year RBC guaranteed income certificate maturing May 4, 2023 at an annual rate of return of 1.6 %. This investment is restricted for the purpose of building a facility for a woman's treatment centre.

The amortized cost of the second fund held in trust for the Women's Treatment Centre is $ 400,389 (2022 - $ NIL). The funds are held in a 180 day RBC guaranteed income certificate maturing September 19, 2023 at an annual rate of return of 4.44 %. This investment is restricted for the purpose of building a facility for a woman's treatment centre.

The amortized cost of the third fund held in trust for the Women's Treatment Centre is $ 522,145 (2022 - $ NIL). The funds are held in a 1 year RBC guaranteed income certificate maturing March 28, 2024 at an annual variable rate of return of 4.45 %. This investment is restricted for the purpose of building a facility for a woman's treatment centre.

14. Contingency

In 2015, the Foundation was served with a legal statement of claim by a former employee for wrongful dismissal. There has been no activity in the current fiscal year on the lawsuit. The complainant is now deceased and the lawsuit is currently in the hands of the complainant's estate. Due to these circumstances, it is not possible to estimate an appropriate dollar amount for the settlement of this action, if any, or the ultimate outcome, and therefore no accrual has been provided in the financial statements.

15. Economic Dependence

The Foundation is economically dependent on the continued support of Ontario Health, Addiction Services of Central Ontario, donations and fundraising.

17. Financial instruments and risk management

The Foundation is exposed to the following risks related to its financial assets and liabilities. The Foundation is not exposed to market risk, other price risk, or any significant concentrations of risk. The following financial risk assessment has remained unchanged from prior year.

Fair values:

The fair values of receivables and accounts payable and accrued liabilities approximate their fair value due to the relatively short periods to maturity of these items or because they are receivable or payable on demand.

Credit risk:

Credit risk is the risk that one party to a financial instrument will cause a financial loss for the other party by failing to discharge an obligation. The Foundation's main credit risks relates to its accounts receivable. There is minimal to no risk relating to the accounts receivable of the Foundation.

Liquidity risk:

The Foundation is exposed to the risk of being unable to honour its financial commitments by the deadlines set out under the terms of such commitments. The Foundation is exposed to this risk mainly through its accounts payable. Senior management manages the Foundation's cash resources based on financial forecasts and anticipated cash flows.
